

I would like to express my very strong support for satellite radio's right to continue providing local oriented material. I find the service invaluable and hope you will block any effort to limit the content which they may provide. Respectfully,
Stephen E. Prover MD